5. Describe the strengths of this course.

The professor's experiences and knowledge from hands-on encounters added a lot to the course. He provided a great environment for students that was comfortable and encouraged discussion. The subject matter was very enjoyable.

6. What changes, if any, would you suggest for this course?

Provide more opportunities to see what we talk about in class through class trips. The ones we had were highlights of the course and more of them would be great.

5. Describe the strengths of this course.

I thought that most of the topics we covered were very interesting. I think that the information was communicated well, and I really liked the powerpoint presentations.

6. What changes if any would you suggest for this course?

Well, I would not schedule it as a night class, as there is a dense amount of material covered, and night courses can be difficult...

Otherwise, a little ~~little~~ little more structure in class would have helped me better piece together the various pieces of information.
